

Ipse Est In Monte

Peter, Paul, and James, the trusted three,
Our Lord these men in glorious form did see,
Upon the mountain, clothed in dazzling white, He spoke with holy prophets in full sight.

And Peter, startled, struck with sudden awe,
Cried out that he would quickly build a tent
For Jesus Christ and prophets, that he saw,
Whom God to troubled Israel had sent.

And suddenly, a booming voice rang clear,
A darkened cloud did shade those who were near.
..Before you stands my well beloved son, ..
"I am well pleased;" was heard, then all was gone.

All glory be to Father and to Son,
And Holy Spirit, glorious three in one.
Who teaches us through His own perfect life,
So as to save our sinful souls from strife.
